
ARC Gallery Highlights Beauty of North Shore

On May 6th, ARC Gallery opens a new show featuring the landscape work of artist Yelena Klairmont. Ms. Klairmont's paintings celebrate the beauty of the local landscapes, in their immediate and unaltered state, focusing on the enchanting yet fragile ravines and bluffs of the North Shore.

Influenced by renowned Highland Park landscape architect Jens Jensen's effort to promote nature as necessary termed "breathing spaces" in an over-urbanized society, Klairmont's works depict many of Jens Jensen's architectural structures, incorporated in his landscape design of the local ravines, parks, and forest preserves.

The exhibit will also include poems by Highland Park poet, and founder of East on Central literary magazine, Emma Kowalenko.

An opening reception will be held on May 6 from 6-9 pm. The show runs May 4 - May 28, at ARC Gallery, located at 734 North Milwaukee Ave. in Chicago. For more information contact the Gallery at 312-733-2787.
